SHALL NOT THE JUDGE OF ALL THE EARTH DO WHAT IS JUST?

The Prelude

The Call to Worship

Rev. Carl Kalberkamp

The Hymn No. 524

Thy Works, Not Mine, O Christ

Thy works, not mine, O Christ, speak gladness to this heart; they tell me all is done; they bid my fear depart.

To whom, save thee, who canst alone for sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

Thy pains, not mine, O Christ, upon the shameful tree, have paid the law's full price and purchased peace for me.
Refrain

Thy cross, not mine, O Christ, has borne the awful load of sins that none in heav'n or earth could bear but God.
Refrain

Thy righteousness, O Christ, alone can cover me: no righteousness avails save that which is of thee. Refrain

Words by Horatius Bonar, 1857, music by John Darwall, 1770

The Invocation

Rev. Caleb Cangelosi

The Hymn

Come, Behold the Wondrous Mystery

Come, behold the wondrous mystery in the dawning of the King. He the theme of heaven's praises, robed in frail humanity. In our longing, in our darkness, now the light of life has come. Look to Christ, who condescended, took on flesh to ransom us.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, He the perfect Son of Man. In His living, in His suffering, never trace nor stain of sin. See the true and better Adam, come to save the hell-bound man. Christ the great and sure fulfillment of the law; in Him we stand.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, Christ the Lord upon the tree. In the stead of ruined sinners hangs the Lamb in victory. See the price of our redemption, see the Father's plan unfold. Bringing many sons to glory, grace unmeasured, love untold.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, slain by death the God of life, but no grave could e'er restrain Him, praise the Lord; He is alive! What a foretaste of deliverance, how unwavering our hope. Christ in power resurrected as we will be when he comes. (repeat)

The Presentation of New Members

1. Do you acknowledge yourselves to be sinners in the sight of God, justly deserving His displeasure, and without hope save in His sovereign mercy?
2. Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Son of God, and Savior of sinners, and do you receive and rest upon Him alone for salvation as He is offered in the Gospel?
3. Do you now resolve and promise, in humble reliance upon the grace of the Holy Spirit, that you will endeavor to live as becomes the followers of Christ?
4. Do you promise to support the Church in its worship and work to the best of your ability?
5. Do you submit yourselves to the government and discipline of the Church, and promise to study its purity and peace?

The Offertory

O Thou, in Whose Presence

O Thou, in whose presence my soul takes delight, on whom in affliction I call, my comfort by day and song in the night, my hope, my salvation, my all! Where dost Thou, dear Shepherd, resort with Thy sheep, to feed them in pastures of love? Say, why in the valley of death should I weep, or alone in this wilderness rove? He looks, and ten thousands of angels rejoice, and myriads wait for his word; He speaks, and eternity, filled with His voice, re-echoes the praise of the Lord. Dear Shepherd, I hear, and will follow Thy call; I know the sweet sound of Thy voice; restore and defend me, for Thou art my all, and in Thee I will ever rejoice.

The Psalm

Lord, From the Depths I Call to You (Psalm 130)

Lord, from the depths I call to you; Lord, hear me from on high and give attention to my voice when I for mercy cry.

Lord, in Your presence who can stand, if You our sins record? But yet forgiveness is with You, that we may fear You, Lord.

I wait, my soul waits for the Lord; my hope is in His Word. More than the watchman waits for dawn my soul waits for the Lord.

O Israel, put your hope in God, for mercy is with Him and full redemption. From their sins His people He'll redeem.

No Escape From An Impartial Judge

The Hymn No. 500

Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me

Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee; let the water and the blood, from thy riven side which flowed, be of sin the double cure, cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Not the labors of my hands can fulfill thy law's demands; could my zeal no respite know, could my tears forever flow, all for sin could not atone; thou must save and thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to thy cross I cling; naked, come to thee for dress, helpless, look to thee for grace; foul, I to the fountain fly; wash me, Savior, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath, when mine eyelids close in death, when I soar to worlds unknown, see thee on thy judgment throne, Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK:

Roger and Abi Lowther, Mission to the World (MTW) Japan

Roger and Abi both serve on the staff of Grace City Church Tokyo, Roger as the Director of Faith and Art, Abi as the Director of Worship Music. Roger is also the founder and Director of Community Arts Tokyo, an organization connecting people to each other, the church, and God through the arts. They have four sons; Aidan, Eastin, Coen, and Kaizen. Pray that Lowthers would be sustained in their areas of expertise, and that others would be drawn to the message of the gospel through the giftings the Lord has blessed them with. Pray that he would be pleased to draw his elect to himself through the service being provided by these dear saints.
