The Hymn No. 94

How Firm a Foundation
Stanzas 1 - 4, 6

The Invocation

The Confession of Faith Westminster Shorter Catechism #57, 62

Leader: Which is the fourth commandment?

People: The fourth commandment is, "Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy."

Leader: What are the reasons annexed to the fourth commandment?

People: The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment are, God's allowing us six days of the week for our own employments, his challenging a special propriety in the seventh, his own example, and his blessing the Sabbath day.

The Psalm 27

O Lord, You Are My Light

O Lord, you are my light and my salvation near; then who will cause me fright or fill my heart with fear? While God my strength, my life sustains, secure from fear my soul remains, secure from fear my soul remains.

My one request has been and still this prayer I raise; that I may live within God's house for all my days. God's glorious beauty to admire, and in his temple to inquire, and in his temple to inquire.

When troubles round me swell, when fears and dangers throng, securely I will dwell in his pavilion strong. Within the shelter of God's tent he hides me till the storm is spent, he hides me till the storm is spent.

Uplifted on a rock above my foes around, amid the battle shock my song shall still resound. Then joyful offering I will bring; the Lord God's praise my heart shall sing, the Lord God's praise my heart shall sing.
