The Hymn of Praise

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing Thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above; Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by thy help I'm come; and I hope, by thy good pleasure safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be; let that grace now, like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee. Prone to wander - Lord I feel it - prone to leave the God I love; here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for Thy courts above.

The Confession of Faith

From Galatians 4:4-7 and 2:20

When the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because we are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So we are no longer slaves, but sons, and if sons, then heirs through God. We have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer we who live, but Christ who lives in us. And the life we now live in the flesh, we live by faith in the Son of God, who loved us and gave himself for us.

The Psalm 22

My God, My God, O Why Have You Forsaken Me?

My God, my God, O why have you forsaken me? O why are you so far from giving help and from my groaning cry? By day and night, my God, I call; your answer still delays. And yet you are the Holy One who dwells in Israel's praise.

Our fathers put their trust in you; from you their rescue came. They begged you and you set them free; they were not put to shame. But as for me, I am a worm and not a man at all. To men I am despised and base; their scornings on me fall.

All those who look at me will laugh and cast reproach at me. Their mouths they open wide; they wag their heads in mock-ery: "The Lord was his re-li-ance once; now see what God will send. Yes, let God rise and set him free, this man that was his friend.

You took me from my mother's womb to safety at the breast. Since birth when I was cast on you, in you, my God, I rest. When I proclaim my praise of you, then all the church will hear, and I will pay my vows in full where men hold him in fear.

My Heart Ever Faithful

J. S. Bach

Liz Taylor, viola

My heart ever faithful, sing praises, be joyful, Thy Jesus is near.
Away with complaining, faith ever maintaining, my Jesus is here.

The Song

God of Grace

God of grace, amazing wonder, irresistible and free, O, the miracle of mercy Jesus reaches down to me. God of grace, I stand in wonder as my God restores my soul. His own blood has paid my ransom, awesome cost to make me whole.

God of grace who loved and knew me long before the world began; sent my Savior down from heaven, perfect God and perfect man. God of grace, I trust in Jesus, I'm accepted as His own. Every day new grace sustains me as I lean on Him alone.

God of grace, I stand astounded, cleansed, forgiven and secure. All my fears are now confounded and my hope is ever sure. God of grace now crowned in glory where one day I'll see your face and forever I'll adore you in your everlasting grace.

How Great a Salvation?

The Hymn of Response

I Love to Tell the Story

I love to tell the story of unseen things above; of Jesus and his glory, of Jesus and his love. I love to tell the story, because I know 'tis true; it satisfies my longings as nothing else can do.

I love to tell the story, 'twill be my theme in glory to tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.

I love to tell the story; 'tis pleasant to repeat what seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet. I love to tell the story, for some have never heard the message of salvation from God's own holy Word. Refrain

I love to tell the story; for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it, like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song, 'twill be the old, old story, that I have loved so long. Refrain
