The Psalm of Praise

O God Our Help in Ages Past (from Psalm 90)

Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Under the shadow of your throne your saints have dwelt secure; sufficient is your arm alone, and our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, or earth received her frame, from everlasting you are God, to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in your sight are like an evening gone; short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, O, be our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.

Words by Isaac Watts, 1719; Tune: St. Anne

The Confession of Faith

The Belgic Confession Article 20

We believe that God—who is perfectly merciful and also very just—sent the Son to assume the nature in which the disobedience had been committed, in order to bear in it the punishment of sin by his most bitter passion and death. So God made known his justice toward his Son, who was charged with our sin, and he poured out his goodness and mercy on us, who are guilty and worthy of damnation, giving to us his Son to die, by a most perfect love, and raising him to life for our justification, in order that by him we might have immortality and eternal life.

The Hymn

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure, that He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure. How great the pain of searing loss – the Father turns His face away, as wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders; ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers. It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished. His dying breath has brought me life – I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything, no gifts, no power, no wisdom; but I will boast in Jesus Christ, his death and resurrection. Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer; but this I know with all my heart - his wounds have paid my ransom.

The Offertory

*Here Is Love*Liz Taylor, violin

Here is love, vast as the ocean, loving-kindness as the flood, when the Prince of Life, our Ransom, shed for us His precious blood. Who His love will not remember? Who can cease to sing His praise? He can never be forgotten, throughout heav'ns eternal days.

On the mount of crucifixion, fountains opened deep and wide; through the floodgates of God's mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide. Grace and love, like mighty rivers, poured incessant from above, and heav'ns peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

Let me, all Thy love accepting, love thee, ever all my days; let me seek Thy kingdom only, and my life be to Thy praise; Thou alone shalt be my glory, nothing in the world I see; Thou hast cleansed and sanctified me, Thou Thyself hast set me free.

Words by William Rees, music by Robert Lowry, arr. Molly Ijames

The Doxology

The children ages 2-4 are dismissed to Church Time.

The Hymn of Supplication

He Leadeth Me: O Blessed Thought!

He leadeth me: O blessed thought! O words with heavenly comfort fraught! Whate'er I do, where'er I be, still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Refrain: He leadeth me, he leadeth me; by his own hand he leadeth me: his faithful follower I would be, for by his hand he leadeth me.

Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom, sometimes where Eden's flowers bloom, by waters calm, o'er troubled sea, still 'tis his hand that leadeth me. Refrain

Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine, nor ever murmur nor repine; content, whatever lot I see, since 'tis my God that leadeth me. Refrain

And when my task on earth is done, when, by thy grace, the victory's won, e'en death's cold wave I will not flee, since God through Jordan leadeth me. Refrain

Words by Joseph Gilmore, 1862; music by William Bradbury, 1864

Our Perfect Shepherd

The Song of Response

Man of Sorrow. What a Name

Man of Sorrows! what a name for the Son of God, who came ruined sinners to reclaim: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude, in my place condemned he stood, sealed my pardon with his blood: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Guilty, vile, and helpless, we; spotless Lamb of God was he; full atonement! can it be? Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Lifted up was he to die, "It is finished!" was his cry; now in heav'n exalted high: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

When he comes, our glorious King, all his ransomed home to bring, then anew this song we'll sing: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

EVENING WORSHIP 6:00 P.M.

We will worship our glorious God tonight as we sing, pray, and receive the word preached by Pastor Carl. We are working through the Westminster Shorter Catechism and Scripture proofs (in the ESV) on Sunday evenings. Tonight, we are on Westminster Shorter Catechism #86-87. We continue in our evening series on idolatry.

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God.

TO EVERYONE WHO VISITS WITH US THIS LORD'S DAY, we welcome you sincerely and from the heart. Grace to you and peace from God our Father through the Lord Jesus Christ. We are currently entering the second phase of our return to corporate worship in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, utilizing 50% of the seating capacity in our sanctuary and gym, and taking measures to gather safely. Please keep at least three seats between families and be considerate and respectful of your neighbor's choice of greeting, so that as each one assesses the risk of returning, we might serve one another in love.

REOPENING POPC: We have begun worshipping at our normal morning times of 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. We will be gathering in both the sanctuary and the gym, utilizing up to 50% capacity of each. The 8:30 a.m. service in the gym will be masks-required. We will have masks on hand for those who do not have them. During both morning worship services we will resume Church Time during the service for 2-4 year olds. While we wait for Sunday School to begin meeting in person, you can continue to watch adult Sunday School classes online; visit www.pearorchard.org/adult-sunday-school to find links to each video.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO KEEP GIVING generously and sacrificially to support the work of our church and the missionaries and ministries we support through our Missions budget. You can mail in your checks or give online. Use the ShelbyNext app on your phone or visit our website to make a one time or recurring contribution: https://www.pearorchard.org/ways-to-give.

COLLEGE AND YOUNG ADULTS BIBLE STUDY: All college students and young adults are welcome to join the College and Young Adults staff for our Monday night bible study hosted at 5319 Pine Lane Drive, Jackson, 39211 and online via Zoom. We are walking through a topical study: What is God's Will for My Life? (Based on Kevin DeYoung's book Just Do Something). All students, including recent high school graduates, are encouraged to join us, either in person or online! Contact Josh Beck for more details (jbeck@ccs.ms).
