The Call to Worship

The Song Christ the Sure and Steady Anchor
Christ the sure and steady anchor in the fury of the storm, when the winds of doubt blow through me, when my sails have all been torn; in the suffering, in the sorrow, when my sinking hopes are few, I will hold fast to the anchor; it will never be removed.

Christ the sure and steady anchor while the tempest rages on, when temptation claims the battle and it seems the night has won, deeper still then goes the anchor though I justly stand accused; I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed.

Christ the sure and steady anchor through the floods of unbelief; hopeless somehow, o my soul now, lift your eyes to Calvary. This my ballast of assurance; see His love forever proved. I will hold fast to the anchor; it will never be removed.

Christ the sure and steady anchor as we face the wave of death; when these trials give way to glory, as we draw our final breath, we will cross that great horizon, clouds behind and life secure, and the calm will be the better for the storms that we endure.

Christ the shore of our salvation, ever faithful, ever true, I will hold fast to the anchor; it will never be removed.

The Heidelberg Catechism #123

Leader: What does the second petition mean?

Leader and People: "Your kingdom come" means: Rule us by your Word and Spirit in such a way that more and more we submit to you. Preserve and increase your church. Destroy the devil's work; destroy every force which revolts against you and every conspiracy against your holy Word. Do all this until your kingdom fully comes, when you will be all in all.
