CHRIST HIMSELF, OUR VERY FEAST!

The Prelude Jesus, the Very Thought of You arr. S. Cook

The Call to Worship Rev. Carl Kalberkamp

The Hymn of Praise No. 252 When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

The Invocation Rev. Kalberkamp

The Song King of Saints

Jesus Christ, God's holy lamb, we will laud Thy lovely name; we were saved by God's decree, and all our debt was paid by Thee. Thou has washed us in Thy blood, made us kings and priests to God; take this tribute of the poor; less we can't, we can't give more.

Souls redeemed, your voices raise, sing your dear Redeemer's praise; worthy Thou of love and laud, King of saints, incarnate God.

Righteous are Thy ways and true; endless honors are Thy due; grace and glory in Thee shine; matchless mercy, love divine. We for whom Thou once was slain, we Thy ransomed sinner train, in this one request agree, "Spirit make us more like Thee." Chorus

The Heidelberg Catechism Q & A #79

Q. Why then does Christ call the bread his body and the cup his blood, or the New Covenant in his blood? (Paul uses the words, a participation in Christ's body and blood.)

A. Christ has good reason for these words. He wants to teach us that as bread and wine nourish our temporal life, so too his crucified body and poured-out blood, truly nourish our souls for eternal life. But more important, he wants to assure us, by his visible sign and pledge, that we, through the Holy Spirit's work share in his true body and blood, as surely as our mouths receive these holy signs in his remembrance, and that all of his suffering and obedience are as definitely ours as if we personally had suffered and paid for our sins.

The Prayer of Thanksgiving Rev. Caleb Cangelosi

The Doxology All Things Are Thine

All things are thine; no gift have we, Lord of all gifts, to offer thee; and hence with grateful hearts today, thine own before thy feet we lay.

*There will be no Children's Message today due to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.
Those in the 2-4 year- old classes are dismissed to Church Time during the hymn.*

The Hymn

How Deep the Father's Love

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure, that He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure. How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns His face away as wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon the cross, my sin upon His shoulders. Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers. It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished; His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything: no gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom. But I will boast in Jesus Christ: His death and resurrection. Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer. But this I know with all my heart: His wounds have paid my ransom.

The Sermon Rev. Kalberkamp

Feasting on the One Who is the Bread, the Light, the Shepherd, the Gate, the Resurrection, the Way and Our Vine of Life!

The Hymn of Preparation Here, O My Lord, I See Thee Face to Face

Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face, here would I touch and handle things unseen; here grasp with firmer hand eternal grace, and all my weariness upon Thee lean.

Here would I feed upon the bread of God, here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven; here would I lay aside each earthly load, here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiv'n.

This is the hour of banquet and of song; this is the heav'nly table spread for me: here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong the brief, bright hour of fellowship with thee.

I have no help but Thine, nor do I need another arm save Thine to lean upon; it is enough, my Lord, enough indeed - my strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness, mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood; here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace - Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord, my God.
