The Hymn of Praise

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with fear, his praise forth-tell, come ye before him and rejoice.

O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his name always, for it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good, his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

Psalm 100, music by Louis Bourgeois, Genevan Psalter

The Confession of Faith

From Colossians 2:9-15

In Jesus Christ the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and we have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also we were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which we were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And we, who were dead in our trespasses and the uncircumcision of our flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by cancelling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them by the cross.

Come to Jesus

C. Rice

Margaret Sprow, vocalist

Weak and wounded sinner, lost and left to die, O raise your head for Love is passing by. Come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Jesus and live.

Now your burden's lifted and carried far away, and precious blood has washed away the stain, so sing to Jesus, sing to Jesus, sing to Jesus and live.

Like a newborn baby, don't be afraid to crawl, and remember when you walk sometimes you fall. So, fall on Jesus, fall on Jesus, fall on Jesus and live.

Sometimes the way is lonely and steep and filled with pain, so if your sky is dark and pours the rain, then cry to Jesus, cry to Jesus, cry to Jesus and live.

Oh, and when the love spills over and music fills the night and when you can't contain the joy inside, then dance for Jesus, dance for Jesus, dance for Jesus and live.

And with your final heartbeat, kiss the world goodbye, then go in peace and laugh on Glory's side, and fly to Jesus, fly to Jesus, fly to Jesus and live.

The Song

Amazing Love

My Lord, what love is this that pays so dearly; that I, the guilty one, may go free?

Amazing love, O what sacrifice, the Son of God giv'n for me; my debt He pays and my death He dies, that I might live, that I might live.

And so they watched Him die, despised, rejected; but, O the blood He shed flowed for me. Chorus

And now this love of Christ shall flow like rivers; come wash your guilt away, live again. Chorus

The Medley of Response

Jesus Lives and So Shall I

Jesus lives, and so shall I. Death! Thy sting is gone forever! He who deigned for me to die, lives, the bands of death to sever. He shall raise me from the dust: Jesus is my hope and trust.

Jesus lives, and by his grace, vic'try o'er my passions giving, I will cleanse my heart and ways, ever to his glory living. Me he raises from the dust: Jesus is my hope and trust.

Jesus lives! I know full well naught from him my heart can sever, life nor death nor pow'rs of hell, joy nor grief, henceforth forever. None of all his saints is lost: Jesus is my hope and trust.

Jesus lives and death is now but my entrance into glory. Courage, then, my soul, for thou hast a crown of life before thee; thou shalt find thy hopes were just: Jesus is the Christian's trust.

Words by Christian Gellert, music by Johann Cruger

Crown Him with Many Crowns

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne; hark, how the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own! Awake, my soul and sing of him who died for thee and hail him as thy matchless king through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of love - behold his hands and side, rich wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified. No angel in the sky can fully bear that sight, but downward bends his wond'ring eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, who rose victorious to the strife for those He came to save. His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high, who died eternal life to bring and lives that death may die.

TO EVERYONE WHO VISITS WITH US THIS LORD'S DAY, we welcome you sincerely and from the heart. Grace to you and peace from God our Father through the Lord Jesus Christ.

REOPENING POPC: We are currently utilizing 50% of the seating capacity in our sanctuary and gym, and taking measures to gather safely. Please keep at least three seats between families and be considerate and respectful of your neighbor's choice of greeting, so that as each one assesses the risk of returning, we might serve one another in love. Masks are required at all services, except for the 11:00 a.m. service in the gym. We will have masks on hand for those who do not have them. While we wait for Sunday School to begin meeting in person, you can continue to watch adult Sunday School classes online; visit www.pearorchard.org/adult-sunday-school to find links to each video.

INSTALLATION SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY NIGHT, AUGUST 16! At 6:00 p.m., we plan to hold the postponed installation service for Pastors Caleb and Carl. The service will be in the gym, so that as many people as possible will be able to be present together in person. Mr. Curt Presley will be preaching God's word, and members of the Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley will be leading the service. Please make plans to join us for this special event in the life of our congregation.

DEAR POPC, We want to thank you all for the plant and for your love for my Mom and our family. Thank you so much for praying for us during this time. Love, Wendy Herring
