The Hymn

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in whom his world rejoices; who from our mothers' arms, hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever-joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us; and keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven- the one eternal God, whom earth and heav'n adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Covenant Prayer

I am no longer my own but Yours. Put me to what You will, rank me with whom You will. Put me to doing, put me to suffering; let me be employed for You or laid aside for You, exalted for You, or brought low for You. Let me be full, or let me be empty; let me have all things, or let me have nothing. I freely and whole-heartedly yield all things for your pleasure and disposal. And now blessed and glorious God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, You are mine and I am Yours. So be it. And this commitment now made on earth, let it be ratified in heaven. Amen.

The Hymn of Response The Church's One Foundation

The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord. She is His new creation by water and the Word. From heaven He came and sought her to be His holy bride; with His own blood He bought her, and for her life He died.

Elect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth; her charter of salvation, one Lord, one faith, one birth; one holy Name she blesses, partakes one holy food, and to one hope she presses with every grace endowed.

Though with a scornful wonder men see her sore oppressed, by schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed, yet saints their watch are keeping; their cry goes up, "How long?" and soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

The church shall never perish, her dear Lord to defend, to guide, sustain and cherish, is with her to the end. Though there be those that hate her, and false sons in her pale, against a foe or traitor she ever shall prevail.

Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war, she waits the consummation of peace forevermore; 'til, with the vision glorious, her longing eyes are blessed, and the great church victorious shall be the church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union with God the Three in One, and mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won. O happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with Thee.
