The Offertory Hark! I Hear the Harps Eternal
The Sanctuary Choir

Hark, I hear the harps eternal ringing on the farther shore, as I near those swollen waters with their deep and solemn roar. Hallelujah, praise the Lamb. Hallelujah, glory to the great I AM!

And my soul, though stained with sorrow, fading as the light of day, passes swiftly o'er those waters to the city far away.

Souls have crossed before me, saintly, to that land of perfect rest; and I hear them singing faintly in the mansions of the blest.

Southern Harmony arr. by Neil Harmon © 2018 Birnamwood Publications

The Doxology The God of Abraham Praise

The whole triumphant host gives thanks to God on high; "Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!" they ever cry. Hail, Abraham's God and mine! I join the heav'nly lays; all might and majesty are thine, and endless praise.

*Children ages 2-5 may come forward for the Children's Message.
Afterward, those in the 2-4 year-old classes are dismissed to Church Time.*

The Hymn Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken

Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God. He whose word cannot be broken, formed thee for His own abode. On the rock of ages founded, what can shake thy sure repose? With salvation's walls surrounded, thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

The Children's Message Rev. Cangelosi

The Hymn Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken

See the streams of living waters, springing from eternal love; well supplies Thy sons and daughters and all fears of want removes. Who can faint while such a river, ever flows their thirst to quench? Grace, which like the Lord the giver, never fails from age to age.

Blest inhabitants of Zion, washed in the Redeemer's blood. Jesus, whom their souls rely on, makes them kings and priests to God. 'Tis His love His people raises, over self to reign as kings; and as priests, His solemn praises, each for a thank offering brings.

Savior, if of Zion's city, I, through grace, a member am, let the world deride or pity, I will glory in Thy name. Fading is the worldling's pleasure, all his boasted pomp and show; solid joys and lasting treasure, none but Zion's children know.

A GUIDE TO MORNING WORSHIP

The Worship of God - Hebrews 12:28-29 declares, "Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; for our God is a consuming fire." As you enter into worship this day, remember these truths: 1) Our salvation is freely given - we did nothing to deserve or earn the kingdom given to us. 2) We worship in response to His mercy and grace, as well as to His absolute perfection and holiness. 3) Acceptable worship is offered according to God's word, from the heart, and is a beautiful mixture of rejoicing and reverence, thankfulness and reverent fear.

The Call to Worship - In worship, as in salvation, God takes the initiative with His people to meet with them and speak to them. He draws near to them and calls them to worship Him in the splendor of holiness. This call is at the same time an invitation and a command - a privilege and a responsibility. Our highest duty is our greatest delight!

The Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs

O Father You Are Sovereign - Margaret Clarkson suffered greatly throughout her life. She had convulsive migraine headaches and was diagnosed with juvenile arthritis at the age of three. Yet she was still able to confess that God is "the Lord of human pain." She grew up in St. John's Presbyterian Church in Toronto, Canada, the city in which she spent most of her life. She remained unmarried her entire life and reflected upon the gift of singleness in her book, So You're Single! Clarkson remarked that successful hymns must possess six characteristics. 1) Good hymns are God-centered, not man-centered. 2) Good hymns are doctrinal in content and theologically sound, rooted securely in Scripture. 3) Good hymns present words of beauty, dignity and simplicity. 4) Good hymns are adult in word and tone. 5) Good hymns display a precision of poetic technique and expression. 6) Good hymns turn the heart heavenward. May the Lord enable us to sing good hymns with a heaven-turned heart!

Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken - John Newton's beautiful hymn reminds us that God's care for His people under the Old Covenant is the same as His care for us under the New Covenant. Newton takes Old Testament imagery and applies it to the church (Ps. 87:3; Isa. 33:20-21; etc.).
