

The Welcome

The Introit

Rise Up, O Saints of God

Rise up, O saints of God! Have done with lesser things; give heart and mind and soul and strength to serve the King of kings. Rise up, O saints of God! His kingdom tarries long. Bring in the day of peace and love and end the night of wrong.

Rise up, O saints of God! The church for you does wait, her strength unequal to her task; rise up, and make her great! Lift high the cross of Christ! Tread where his feet have trod. As foll'wers of the Son of God, rise up, O saints of God!

The Invocation

The Song

By Faith

By faith we see the hand of God in the light of creation's grand design, in the lives of those who prove His faithfulness, who walk by faith and not by sight. By faith our fathers roamed the earth with the power of His promise in their hearts of a holy city built by God's own hand, a place where peace and justice reign.

We will stand as children of the promise; we will fix our eyes on Him our soul's reward. Till the race is finished and the work is done, we'll walk by faith and not by sight.

By faith the prophets saw a day when the longed-for Messiah would appear with the power to break the chains of sin and death and rise triumphant from the grave. By faith the church was called to go in the power of the Spirit to the lost to deliver captives and to preach good news in every corner of the earth. Chorus

By faith this mountain shall be moved, and the power of the gospel shall prevail. For we know in Christ all things are possible for all who call upon His name. Chorus
