The Hymn No. 700

Come, We That Love the Lord

The Invocation

The Confession of Faith Westminster Larger Catechism #38-40

Leader: Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God?

Leader and People: It was requisite that the Mediator should be God, that he might sustain and keep the human nature from sinking under the infinite wrath of God, and the power of death; give worth and efficacy to his sufferings, obedience, and intercession; and to satisfy God's justice, procure his favor, purchase a peculiar people, give his Spirit to them, conquer all their enemies, and bring them to everlasting salvation.

Leader: Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be man?

Leader and People: It was requisite that the Mediator should be man, that he might advance our nature, perform obedience to the law, suffer and make intercession for us in our nature, have a fellow-feeling of our infirmities; that we might receive the adoption of sons, and have comfort and access with boldness unto the throne of grace.

Leader: Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God and man in one person?

Leader and People: It was requisite that the Mediator, who was to reconcile God and man, should himself be both God and man, and this in one person, that the proper works of each nature might be accepted of God for us, and relied on by us, as the works of the whole person.

The Song

Isaiah 43

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and the waves will not overcome you. Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by name, you are Mine.

For I am the Lord your God, (I am the Lord your God), I am the Lord your God, (I am) the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. For I am the Lord your God, (I am the Lord your God), I am the Lord your God, (I am) the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I am the Lord, (do not fear) I am the Lord (do not fear).

When you walk through the fire, you'll not be burned, and the flames will not consume you. Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by name, you are Mine. Chorus
