The Hymn No. 455

And Can It Be That I Should Gain
Omit Stanza 2

The Invocation

The Confession of Faith Westminster Larger Catechism #46-47

Leader: What was the estate of Christ's humiliation?

Leader and People: The estate of Christ's humiliation was that low condition, wherein he for our sakes, emptying himself of his glory, took upon him the form of a servant, in his conception and birth, life, death, and after his death, until his resurrection.

Leader: How did Christ humble himself in his conception and birth?

Leader and People: Christ humbled himself in his conception and birth, in that, being from all eternity the Son of God, in the bosom of the Father, he was pleased in the fullness of time to become the son of man, made of a woman of low estate, and to be born of her; with divers circumstances of more than ordinary abasement.

The Psalm 32

What Blessedness Belongs to Him

What blessedness belongs to him who truly is forgiv'n, for whom transgressions have been cleared, and covered is his sin. How blessed is the one the Lord accuses not of sin, the man without deceit and guile, whose heart is pure within.

I languished, silent in my guilt; my days were filled with groans. Your hand on me pressed day and night, and heat dried up my bones. My trespasses to you I owned, hide not my wickedness; I said, "I will before the Lord transgressions now confess."

You pardoned my iniquity and took my guilt away; and therefore while you may be found, let godly people pray. The gush of torrents will not harm; you hide me, give me peace. You keep me safe, surrounding me with songs of my release.

Instruction I will give to you and teach the way to go. My watchful eye will guide your steps; my counsel you will know. Be not like senseless mule or horse, which cannot understand, with bit and bridle must be curbed to follow your command.

The sorrows of the wicked man in number shall abound, but those who trust in God the Lord, his mercy will surround. Be glad, you righteous, shout for joy, and give the Lord your praise! With upright hearts, O saints of God, your joyful songs upraise!
