GOD MADE JESUS WHO KNEW NO SIN
TO BE SIN FOR US
SO THAT WE MIGHT BECOME
THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD IN HIM

The Prelude

Festal March

The Call to Worship

Rev. Carl Kalberkamp

The Hymn of Praise No. 286

Worship Christ, the Risen King!

Rise, O church, and lift your voices, Christ has conquered death and hell. Sing as all the earth rejoices; resurrection anthems swell. Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the risen King!

See the tomb where death had laid him, empty now, its mouth declares: "Death and I could not contain him, for the throne of life he shares." Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the risen King!

Hear the earth protest and tremble, see the stone removed with pow'r; all hell's minions may assemble, but cannot withstand his hour. He has conquered, he has conquered, Christ the Lord, the risen King!

Doubt may lift its head to murmur, scoffers mock and sinners jeer; but the truth proclaims a wonder thoughtful hearts receive with cheer. He is risen, he is risen, now receive the risen King!

We acclaim your life, O Jesus, now we sing your victory; sin or hell may seek to seize us, but your conquest keeps us free. Stand in triumph, stand in triumph, worship Christ, the risen King!

Jack W. Hayford, 1986, Henry Smart, 1867

The Confession of Faith

The Heidelberg Catechism #1-2

Pastor: What is your only comfort in life and in death?

Pastor and People: That I, with body and soul, both in life and in death, am not my own, but belong to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who with His precious blood has fully satisfied for all my sins, and redeemed me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that all things must work together for my salvation. Wherefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live unto Him.

Pastor: How many things are necessary for you to know, that in this comfort you may live and die happily?

Pastor and People: Three things: First, the greatness of my sin and misery. Second, how I am redeemed from all my sin and misery. Third, how I am to be thankful to God for such redemption.

The Song

Come, Behold the Wondrous Mystery

Come, behold the wondrous mystery in the dawning of the King. He the theme of heaven's praises, robed in frail humanity. In our longing, in our darkness, now the light of life has come. Look to Christ, who condescended, took on flesh to ransom us.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, He the perfect Son of Man. In His living, in His suffering, never trace nor stain of sin. See the true and better Adam, come to save the hell-bound man. Christ the great and sure fulfillment of the law; in Him we stand.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, Christ the Lord upon the tree. In the stead of ruined sinners hangs the Lamb in victory. See the price of our redemption, see the Father's plan unfold. Bringing many sons to glory, grace unmeasured, love untold.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, slain by death the God of life, but no grave could e'er restrain Him, praise the Lord; He is alive! What a foretaste of deliverance, how unwavering our hope. Christ in power resurrected as we will be when he comes. (repeat)

The Offertory

All Things Bright and Beautiful

J. Rutter

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all. Each little flow'r that opens, each little bird that sings, He made their glowing colors, He made their tiny wings. All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

The purple-headed mountain, the river running by, the sunset and the morning that brightens up the sky; the cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun, the ripe fruits in the garden, He made them ev'ry one. All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well. All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

The Psalm

I Love You, Lord! You Are My Strength (Psalm 18)

I love You, Lord! You are my strength, the Lord, my rock, my fort, my power, my God, my hiding place, my shield, my horn of safety, and my tower. I call upon the Lord for help, for worthy of all praise is He; and in this way I will be saved and rescued from my enemy.

I was encircled by death's ropes, and at destruction's flood, I feared. The ropes of Sheol wrapped around; before me snares of death appeared. In my distress I cried for help, and begged the Lord, my God, to hear. He from His temple heard my voice; my cry for help had reached His ear.

From heaven He took hold of me and lifted me as waters rose; from those who hated me, He saved, from all my overpowering foes. How perfect is the way of God! The Lord's word has been proven sound; He is a shield to everyone who has in Him a refuge found. Repeat

The Gospel in the Genealogy

The Hymn of Response No. 650

I Will Sing of My Redeemer

I will sing of my Redeemer, and his wondrous love to me: on the cruel cross he suffered, from the curse to set me free.

Sing, O sing of my Redeemer! With his blood He purchased me; on the cross he sealed my pardon, paid the debt and made me free.

I will tell the wondrous story, how my lost estate to save, in his boundless love and mercy, he the ransom freely gave. Refrain

I will praise my dear Redeemer, his triumphant pow'r I'll tell, how the victory he giveth over sin and death and hell. Refrain

I will sing of my Redeemer and his heav'nly love to me; he from death to life has brought me, Son of God, with him to be. Refrain
